

LABYRINTH

In Our Hands

You and your family feel that you have been mistreated.
You believe that your only option is to take matters in your own hands.

Using violence or the threat of it to solve a problem is violent extremism, which can cause people to get killed or hurt and will not help solve your problem or resolve your grievances. Nonviolent resistance has been used as one means of affecting change. You are headed in the wrong direction. Go back 5 spaces.
